

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Bibliography and abreviations .....	5
-------------------------------------	---

Chapter I

INTRODUCTION .....	27
Motivation .....	27
Objective of the research .....	34
Research method .....	35

Chapter II

LEGAL INHERITANCE AND FAMILY IN THE CIVIL

CODE OF 1864 .....	38
The legislative context .....	38
Section I: What is family in the XIXth and in the first part of the XXth centuries? .....	39
Section II: The status of the descendants .....	41
Legitimate and illegitimate descendants .....	41
Section III: The status of the surviving spouse .....	50
(A) The surviving spouse and the impact of the Civil Code of 1864 .....	52
A.1) The ab intestato succession between spouses in the Romanian Country and in Moldavia in the XVIII-XIX centuries .....	52
Conceptual context of the matter .....	52
Marriage as a Religious ritual that generates unity .....	53
The biblical paradigm of the successional law .....	54
Elements of successional law in the ecclesiastic environment .....	56
Successional law elements in the Romanian ancient civil legislation .....	61
Boundaries between the spheres of civil and ecclesiastic authority over marriage in A. Şaguna, Trebile căsătorilor .....	63
Stage conclusions .....	66
Pravilniceasca condică .....	68
The Caragea Regulation .....	71

The Andronachi Donici Manual .....	72
The Calimach Code .....	74
Stage conclusions .....	77
A.2) Romanian Civil code of 1864 .....	78
The regulation of the modern Civil Code .....	78
The successional right of the widow in the lack of the legitimate or natural heirs of decius .....	79
The successional rights of the poor widow (art. 684 Civ.c.) .....	82
The nature of the right of the poor widow .....	84
The coexistence of the rights of the poor widow and of a will .....	86
Evaluating the poverty of the widow .....	87
The characteristics of the right of the poor widow .....	89
The quota of the poor widow's right .....	92
Other successional rights of the widow.....	95
Stage conclusions .....	98
The reactions of the Romanian legal scholars .....	99
The socio-economical context .....	105
A.3) Conclusions .....	110
A.4) The measures taken to ameliorate the existing system of the old Romanian Civil Code .....	113
A.5) The situation of the surviving spouse in the successional law of the Romanian provinces which became united with the Old Kingdom following 1918 .....	119
(B) From the authoritarian family to the associated family .....	127
The French borrowing .....	127
The civil incapacity of the married woman .....	131
Parental authority .....	133
The family configuration observed by the Romanian Civil Code of 1940 .....	138
(C) Matrimonial regimes in the Romania Civil code of 1864 .....	143
Motivation .....	143
General aspects .....	144
The particularities of the regulation.....	145
The legal matrimonial regime of separation of assets .....	147
The matrimonial dowry regime.....	151

Constituting the dowry .....	156
The functioning of the dowry matrimonial regime .....	165
The ceasing and liquidation of the dowry regime .....	166
The acquisitive society .....	169
The legal regime of the matrimonial liberalities.....	175
(D) The successional reform of 1944 .....	176
Doctrine preliminaries .....	176
Stage conclusions .....	179
(E) Special comparative law aspects .....	180
(F) The impact of Law no. 319/1944 over the family and the legal succession, in the context of the political regime change following the Second World War .....	188
Legal aspects .....	188
The family in the proletarian age .....	192
The Family code of 1954 .....
Section IV: The regime of the successional reserve .....	201
The calculation of the reserve in the case of the renunciation or indignity of some of the reserve heirs .....	202
Calculating the reserve of the surviving spouse.....	205
The special available quota of the surviving spouse .....	217
Section V: Conclusion .....	225

Chapter III

LEGAL INHERITANCE AND FAMILY IN THE ROMANIAN

CIVIL CODE OF 2009 .....	228
Introductory matters .....	228
Section I: The filiation and the new issues in the New Civil Code .....	229
A) The struggle for recognition or the victorious slave (incursion into the sphere of legal and theological definition of the family) .....	230
Prolegomena .....	230
The decline of family, environmental and mentality factors ....	233
The society as structure and system .....	238
The definition – a part of an universal order? .....	241
Rediscovering unity as a way out from the doubtful environment (on the Pentateuch of the perennial dilemmas) .....	245

B) The modern filiation at the intersection of family and inheritance .....	247
The medically assisted human reproduction .....	249
Establishing filiation .....	250
The substitution maternity .....	252
The influence of the modern procreation methods over the successional rules .....	257
C) Establishing the filiation in the Romanian private international lawn – difficulties and possible solutions .....	261
I) The filiation of the child stemming from marriage .....	262
Determining the mother .....	263
European case law .....	267
Menesson și Labasse vs. France .....	267
Paradiso and Campanelli vs. Italy .....	269
The mother’s valid marriage .....	273
The domain of lex filiationis .....	277
Contesting the paternity .....	278
The law applicable to legitimization .....	280
2) The filiation of the child stemming from outside of the marriage .....	282
Establishing the filiation of an out of a wedlock born child .....	282
Acknowledging the filiation of the child born outside of the marriage .....	285
The domain of lex filiationis .....	286
The law applicable to the contestation of the acknowledgement of the filiation – art. 2605 par. 2 final Civ.c. ....	288
Conclusion .....	290
Section II: The family novelties in the field of law of succession in the Romanian Civil Code of 2009 .....	290
The situation of the surviving spouse .....	290
The successional reserve’s regime .....	292
The special available quota of the surviving spouse .....	299
Trends in the successional reserve’s situation .....	302
Section III: The successional reserve and the private international law .....	305

1) The exception of public international order – legal regime .....	306
A. The public international order in the former Romanian Civil Code .....	307
B. The public international order exception in the Law no. 105/1992 .....	308
C. The public international order exception in the New Civil code .....	311
D. The public international order exception in the (EU) Regulation n° 650/2012 .....	314
2) The successional reserve in private international law .....	317
Conclusion .....	323
Section IV: The rules pertaining to matrimonial regimes and those of successional law - correlations .....	323
Preliminaries .....	323
Combining the matrimonial preoccupation with the successional one .....	324
The legal nature of the property acquired by one of the spouses by means of legal inheritance or particular will-type provision .....	327
The mortis causa acts of disposal .....	329
The liquidation of the matrimonial regimes and its successional impact .....	331
1) The termination of the marriage – cause of matrimonial regime cessation .....	331
2) The preferential clause .....	333
3) The clauses referring to the liquidation of the conventional matrimonial regime .....	345
Conclusions .....	348
Section V: The regime of the separation of assets in the New Civil Code – a functionality issue? .....	348
Preliminaries .....	348
The creation and functioning of the separation of assets .....	350
Special clauses .....	355
The composition of the patrimonies of the spouses that are subject to the separation of assets .....	357
Managing the patrimony interests.....	362
Judiciary separation .....	363
Ceasing of the separatist regime.....	365

Liquidation of the separatist regime .....	367
A conclusion? .....	372
Section VI: The recognition of the matrimonial status obtained abroad and the European protection of the right to family life .....
1) Private international law aspects regarding gay marriages .....	375
2) Protection of the fundamental rights of man in Europe and the issue of acknowledging the marriages between same sex persons .....	382
a. The case law on same sex couples .....	382
b. The case law regarding, in general, the acknowledgment of the family status obtained abroad .....	388
c. Possible implications in the field of same sex persons marriages .....	391
Conclusions .....	398
Section VII: Practical applications and successional strategies .....
A) The inactive potential successor and the successional option .....	399
The solution in the 1865-1951 period .....	401
The solution in the 1951-2011 period .....	402
The situation in the New Civil code .....	404
Difficulties .....	407
Solutions .....	408
B) Heirs and legal heresies .....	414
1) Divorcing the surviving spouse .....	415
“The trial draw” .....	422
Conclusion .....	425
2) In the name of biological truth .....	426
The third person, his heirs and the right to question the paternity of the mother’s husband .....	428
Instead of conclusions .....	435
 Chapter IV
FINAL CONCLUSIONS .....	436
Annex 1 – Alphabetical index .....	488
Annex 2 – Legal texts index .....	492
Annex 3 – Index of persons .....	501
Table of contents .....	503