

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS / 5

LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES / 7

INTRODUCTION / 9

FOREWORD / 13

1. THE ART OF MONTAGE IN CINEMA. THE KULESHOV EFFECT / 15

- 1.1. Visual perception and Gestalt principles / 15
- 1.2. Moving pictures. A revolution at the end of the 19th century / 21
- 1.3. The beginnings of Russian cinema – from Tsarist to Soviet cinema / 27
- 1.4. The pioneers of Soviet cinema / 30
- 1.5. Montage. The art of cutting with meaning / 36
- 1.6. The Kuleshov effect, a turning point in the art of montage / 38
- 1.7. The principles of montage / 44
- 1.8. Theorizing about influencing the viewer through images / 47
- 1.9. Adaptations of the Kuleshov effect / 53

2. THE KULESHOV EFFECT, FROM CINEMA TO TELEVISION / 61

- 2.1. From the illusion of filmic reality to television realism / 61
- 2.2. The relationship between the audience and the television product / 71
- 2.3. Television, a product and a tool of cultural industry / 75
- 2.4. Media events. Viewer perception of the type and approach of the event presented / 81

3. THE IMAGE TRAIL – FROM THE KULESHOV EFFECT TO FAKE NEWS / 91

- 3.1. The fake news phenomenon. A method of media influence / 91
- 3.2. Montage as a constituent part of fake news / 100
- 3.3. Fake news, deepfake and AI – the threats of disinformation in the digital era / 105

4. THE KULESHOV EFFECT AND THE IMPACT OF FAKE NEWS ON THE ROMANIAN AUDIENCE / 116

4.1. Methodology / 116

4.2. Research results / 120

4.2.1. Respondents' profile / 120

4.2.2. Analysis and interpretation of results / 120

4.2.3. Interviews with film and television specialists on the Kuleshov effect / 142

4.2.4. Research conclusions / 144

5. CONCLUSIONS / 149

AFTERWORD / 153

BIBLIOGRAPHY / 155

APPENDICES / 167